

Grade 3

Teacher: Nifong

Week of May 17, 2010

Reading: The story this week is Yagua Days, which is set in Puerto Rico. This is a paperback book, which I have in the classroom. The students will do a series of comprehension sheets that includes information about Puerto Rico. There will also be the unit test this week.	Spelling: See the attached list. The spelling words this week are words that come from the reading selection. There are only ten words on this list.
Grammar: In grammar this week, the class will review the concepts and skills that were presented to them during the year.	Math: In this subject, we will finish the study of the metric system. Then we will review the concepts previously studied.
Social Studies: We have finished the chapters in the book. Now, we will do short activities using maps and map reading.	Science: We will study the cycles on Earth and in space. This would include weather. With the many activities at the end of the year, the class will try to complete this unit in the Science book.
Religion: Rosary will be recited on May 21 at 1:45. You are welcome to join us. The religion unit test will be on May 18. The end of the year religion test will be on Friday, May 21. I will have a study guide for the students to use to study for this test.	Comments: Teacher Appreciation week was just wonderful. Thank you for all the food, flowers, and cards. Jackie Nifong ☺
